The Pennsylvania Department of Education, an equal opportunity employer, will not discriminate in employment, educational programs or activities, based on race, sex, handicap, or because a person is a disabled veteran or a veteran of the Vietnam Era. This policy of non-discrimination extends to all other legally protected classifications. Publication of this policy in this document is in accordance with state and federal laws including Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Inquiries should be directed to Susan Mitchell, Affirmative Action Officer, 503/504 Coordinator and Title IX Coordinator, Education Building, 333 Market Street, P.O. Box 911, Harrisburg, PA 17108 (717-787-1953).

OPERATING INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION IN PENNSYLVANIA LEGALLY AUTHORIZED TO GRANT DEGREES

This summary of operating institutions of higher education in Pennsylvania legally authorized to grant degrees is provided for use by members of the State Board of Education, members of the Legislature, Department of Education personnel, and others interested in higher education. It includes relevant data on 211 institutions, including 14 state colleges and university; four state-related commonwealth universities; 14 community colleges; 12 private state-aided institutions; 96 private colleges, universities and seminaries; nine private junior colleges; 54 proprietary schools; one state school of technology; and seven other institutions. In addition to these 211 institutions, there are 28 branch colleges and campuses maintained by five parent institutions, including The Pennsylvania State University with 20, University of Pittsburgh with four, Indiana University of Pennsylvania with two, and Clarion State College and Temple University with one each. Also, the University Center at Harrisburg is maintained by five institutions, and Nova University of Technology at Fort Lauderdale, Florida maintains four off-campus centers (referred to as clusters) in Pennsylvania.

This listing was prepared in the Division of Education Statistics in cooperation with the Office of Higher Education in the Pennsylvania Department of Education. The information used in updating was received from either Dr. Warren D. Evans of the Office of Higher Education or the survey form entitled "Institutional Characteristics of Colleges and Universities" (NCES 2300-1).

OPERATING INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION IN PENNSYLVANIA LEGALLY AUTHORIZED TO GRANT DEGREES

November 1981

(This supersedes issue of June 1981)

The Commonwealth System of Higher Education

The Act of October 18, 1972, Act 224, directs the State Board of Education to adopt a Master Plan for Higher Education, which shall (i) define the role of each type of institution in The Commonwealth System of Higher Education, (ii) recommend enrollment levels for each institution, (iii) recommend a method of governance of the System, (iv) provide formulas for the distribution of state funds among the institutions, and (v) otherwise provide for an orderly development of the System.

There is herein set forth a listing of the institutions in each type of role provided for in Act 224.

1/ In addition to the total institutional accreditation, institutions may have accreditation for one or more of its various components. The individual institution should be contacted for information regarding these accreditations.
2/ Same regional accreditation as the parent institution.
3/ Postsecondary institutions authorized to award the associate in specialized business (ASB) and/or the associate in specialized technology (AST) degrees for certain approved programs.
4/ At these locations, degrees are awarded by the parent institution which is legally approved, dependent upon authorization, to operate classes or programs in Pennsylvania.
5/ Annenberg School of Communications is legally authorized to grant degrees; however, the degree is granted jointly by the University of Pennsylvania and the Annenberg School of Communications.
6/ Collegiate courses in religion only at a Jewish high school in Philadelphia.
7/ Field studies courses only in Regions 1 and 6 in concert with American Field Studies, Inc.
8/ This center is maintained by Elizabethtown College, Lebanon Valley College, The Pennsylvania State University, Temple University, and University of Pennsylvania and is a separate corporation without degree-granting authority.

NOTE: (1) The corporate name or part of the corporate name, usually deleted in general usage, is shown in parentheses. Where names are indented, they are fictitious names devised by the corporation; the legal name in these instances is contained within parentheses.

(2) Abbreviations under total institutional accreditation are:
